I DON'T WANT TO PLAY IN YOUR YARD.

Words by PHILIP WINGATE.
Tempo à la Mazurka.

Music by H. W. PETRIE.

Introduction for piano. The music is in 3/4 time, key of B-flat major. It begins with a forte (f) dynamic, followed by a mezzo-forte (mf) section. The notation includes treble and bass staves with various chords and melodic lines.

First verse of the song. The vocal melody is in the treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "1. Once there lived side by side, two lit - tle maids, Used to dress just a - like, 2. Next day two lit - tle maids each oth - er miss, Quar - rels are soon made up,"

Second verse of the song. The vocal melody is in the treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "hair down in braids,.... Blue ging - am pin - a - fores, stock - ings of red, sealed with a kiss,..... Then hand in hand a - gain, hap - py they go,"

Copyright, 1904, by H. W. Petrie.

Do you want to giggle? Of course you do. Well, then, send for this new comic song,

"I'M SORRY THAT I DID!"

The words are by Winnie Black, the nom de plume of Philip Wingate, who wrote the words to "I Don't Want to Play in Your Yard," and the melody by H. W. Petrie, the composer of the music.

WALTZ SONG.

By H. W. PETRIE.

The words are unusually good, and the melody as simple and pretty as can be. It is easy to sing and suits all voices. It is said to be the best composition of this favorite composer. Send for it. You will be well pleased and will recommend it to your friends.
